ELMISA RESTAURANT IN RANCH BERNARDO

The image shows the interior of Il Dandy Restaurant in San Diego. The space is modern and industrial, featuring a prominent blue bar with a white countertop. Above the bar, a multi-tiered metal shelving unit holds various bottles and plants. The ceiling is white with exposed ductwork and several pendant lights. In the foreground, a table is set with white plates, glasses, and salt and pepper shakers. A decorative metal railing with a fan-like pattern separates the seating area from the bar. Large windows on the right side offer a view of the outdoors. A yellow diagonal stripe runs along the left edge of the image.
